

Board Opportunity

The Forage Center for Peacebuilding and Humanitarian Education, Inc. (Forage Center) is expanding its Board of Directors and invites applications from individuals interested in lending their voice, leadership and experience to build outreach and engagement with the peacebuilding and humanitarian community and maintain a strong, adaptive and resilient organization.

About Us

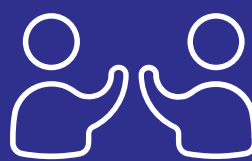

The Forage Center is a US-based 501c3 not-for-profit organization that empowers emerging humanitarians by providing educational opportunities and experiential-based training for students, educators, and professionals working in peacebuilding and humanitarian environments around the world. For more information visit foragecenter.org.

Time Commitment

- 3-year terms
- 4 (virtual) 1hr meetings/year
- 1-2 ad hoc meetings/year
- Serve on at least one committee
- Annual Field Exercise
- Annual board and staff retreat

Roles & Committees

Roles: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary

Committees: Governance, Programming, Finance & Fundraising, Communications & Outreach

Qualifications

The Forage Center seeks to strengthen the diversity of perspectives and lived experiences at the board level and is interested in individuals who:

- Seek to build their own board experience while playing a key role in guiding and growing the Forage Center's reach.
- Bring professional, educational, and/or volunteer experience in all fields; especially those with a background in leadership, programming, communications, outreach, and development.
- Share our values of inclusiveness, integrity, credibility, dedication, and have a passion for the Forage Center's mission.

Role Description

Board members provide leadership, governance, and oversight and:

- Serves as advisor to the President
- Develops and implements our annual strategic plan
- Provides fiduciary & legal guidance
- Assists with organization development
- Represents the Forage Center

Next Steps

Submit an application. Applications are received year-round and are vetted by the President and Board.